2 Eligibility

Program	Educational Qualification	Nationality
Master's degree or Integrated Master's & Doctoral Degree	- Those who have or are expected to receive a Bachelor's degree or its equivalent as stipulated by regulations.	- The nationality of the applicant and the applicant's parents must be non-Korean - Overseas Korean nationals are eligible if they have completed elementary, secondary and post-secondary education overseas, that is equivalent to that of Korean education.
Doctoral Degree	- Those who have or are expected to receive a Master's degree or its equivalent as stipulated by regulations. - If applicants have a Master's degree with a different field of major from the major for which they are applying, they should receive a recommendation letter from the head professor of the department they are applying to.

※ Applicants with no nationality or with a dual Korean citizenship are not eligible.

※ Certificate(Test score) of certain language proficiency test is not a mandatory part of the application process, but applicants for some departments are required to have a certain level of language skills as specified below. Please refer to the Section 4 "Departments/Majors" to check language requirements of each department.

3 Admission Criteria

A. Admission decisions are based on document screening; including the candidate's academic achievements, personal accomplishments, and language proficiency. Depending on the policy of the department/major, a written examination, interview, or practical/performance test may be required.

B. The important assessing factors for the document screening process that will be taken into consideration, are: academic performance such as Grade Point Average (GPA), level of completed courses, study plan, personal statement, etc.

C. Procedure of Admissions

- 1) Regardless of the degree/program received or completed by the applicant, the acceptance selection will be made according to the order of applicants possessing the highest total score.
- 2) If an applicant fails to meet the admission criteria, the application will no longer be further considered.

Classification	Percentage	Points in total	Notes
Language Proficiency	50	50	※ Language proficiency can include Korean or other languages
